SWEDE ON A RAMPAGE.

Arrested and Placed in City Bastille. Proceeds to Demolish Everything Breakable.

Park City, Jan. 23.—Yesterday evening a Swede by the name of Larson was arrested by Marshal McDonough upon the charge of being drunk. The fellow was taken into custody and placed in the city jail. Some two months ago he was down town, and after getting drunk proceeded to break up the furniture in one of the saloons that anything else. Upon being arrested the man made two of the officers very busy men for a period covering about two or three minutes bringing him to the city jail. Judge Lockhart sent the fellow up for forty days, and the man being put to work on the street at once skipped out and went to one of the mines, where he stayed. Thinking the town well rid of such a fellow, the officers did not try to get their man after he got beyond the limits, but they sent word that Mr. Larson had better remain out of town. This he did until the morning of the 21st, when he came to town and he came into town to "tank up" on fighting whiskey. The city marshal learned of the return of the prodigal, and before he had time to secure more than enough booze had him in jail. Then it was that business picked up as it were. The fellow was accorded the privilege of the large room and at once proceeded to destroy things. With the aid of an old shovel Larson went to work, and in a short time had broken everything breakable into pieces. During all this time he kept up such a roar and racket that the town hall thought it best not to disturb his pastime. A while later, after the infuriated man had broken everything breakable into pieces, an entrance was made by the rear way and the fellow placed in one of the cells. Such a clean-up has rarely ever been seen in this town. The fellow, five windows, all the lights and the wiring, in fact, everything upon which the shovel had a breaking effect, was broken into wild man's wrath. So far no charges have been preferred, as the city officials are awaiting the service of the first sentence before arresting him. It is safe to say that a letter addressed in care of Marshal McDonough will find the man most any time.

An official visitation of the grand officers of the state of Utah was made last evening to the city of Park City. A number of addresses were made by the visitors and by the members of the local lodge and a fine evening spent. Refreshments were served later on in the evening and the good of the order made an order of business always in order. Those who were present were: W. M. G. M. C. A. Walker, G. W. E. M. C. M. C. Secretary, P. A. Shupham, C. F. M. T. Pendleton, G. R. W. A. Carbis, P. G. M. Ed. Perce.

Reports come from Silver Lake that the snow in that part of the country is deeper than it has been for many years. On the divide between Alta and that resort there is a comb over fairly high, and the snow is correspondingly deep in all parts of the big canyon.

The Union Pacific railway people have had a terrific time in the past few days in getting up into the high line road. The cuts on that piece of road are especially designed to catch the snow during the winter months, and the result is that no cars were moved either to or from that terminal for some days past. The snow piled up to the roof of the cars, and it required the crews working all night to keep up with the snow on that line. The snow plow was sent up on Monday morning, but it jumped the track, and a greater part of the day was spent getting it out of the way so that work might be carried on.

SANTAQUIN MULE STORY.

Animal Disappears and is Found Alive in Well After Twenty-nine Days.

Provo, Jan. 23.—It is reported from Santaquin that a mule belonging to William Hudson of that place was missed some time last month from the band of horses with which he was running in the pasture. It was supposed to have been stolen. Twenty-nine days after it was found in a well on the farm, alive and kicking after a long time of good or water for that length of time.

Alfred Bennett, one of the men killed in the Alta snowslide, was reported to be from Eureka, was a Santaquin man, and his remains will be buried there.

A convention for the organization of a county fair committee has been called to meet in the Commercial club rooms in this city, Saturday, Feb. 3, at 10 o'clock. The Commercial club committee on county fair organization has sent invitations to mayors of cities and presidents of town boards, and to the Commercial club. The committee is desirous to send delegates. There is considerable enthusiasm for the movement throughout the county, and as the Commercial club has secured an exceptionally fine site, it is expected the project will be pushed to a successful termination.

President Brimhall and the faculty of the Brigham Young university entertained the boys and girls just graduated from the Provo public schools last evening. An address of welcome was made by President Brimhall, in which he congratulated the graduates on their successful work in the public schools and encouraged them to continue their studies in the high school. Mr. Snow, president of the graduates, responded in an appropriate speech, and Dr. F. W. Taylor addressed the meeting, making a forceful and convincing talk. Musical selections were rendered, and a ball in gymnasium hall, with light refreshments, closed the program.

A marriage license has been issued to Edgar P. Perry, aged 23, and Maude E. Welch, aged 23, both of Provo. Joseph E. Crook of Payson was convicted in the Fourth district court of keeping a saloon in Payson on the 19th of the month. The court sentenced him to the house for 60 days, and the fine of $100. Another case of a similar nature was dismissed on the defendant's demurrer being sustained.

Chairman Spry was in Provo today consulting with local politicians. "The Girl from Sweden" comes to the opera house Thursday evening.

DEATH OF J. S. ALLEN.

Prominent Merchant of South Cache a Victim of Pneumonia.

Logan, Jan. 23.—Joseph S. Allen, one of the most prominent merchants of south Cache, died at his home in Hyrum yesterday of pneumonia. Lung ailments had confined him to his home during the past year, and lately he developed into a disease that carried him off. Mr. Allen had been in the mercantile business at Hyrum for more than thirty years, and was widely known here for his upright and charitable disposition. He leaves a wife and two children.

Funeral services will be held in the state house at Hyrum at 1 o'clock next Thursday.

Judge Maughan today made an order regarding the house asylum John Welch, an aged resident of Paradise and a patriarch of the Mormon church, which was committed to the state house last month ago. It seems, however, that he was not dangerously insane, but persisted in roaming about the country, and the court ordered that he be confined to the state house until he is cured.
